CONFUSED?

At the last count there were over 65 CRM classroom courses available from the market leader. There were another 50 courses offered in Live Virtual Class or web format. Finding the right course for your team can be a struggle, and the different versions and content mean that you can lose valuable time just figuring out what you need.

In fact there may not be a course that meets the requirements of your implementation team. Whilst the recommendation to follow a Core Consultant or foundation course is an excellent one, experience tells us that some customers need to cover modules that are not included in these courses or indeed in any course at all!

DESIGN YOUR COURSE

We know the courses from top to bottom. We know the course content and the areas where a good trainer can add further value and example. And we have a stock of custom content and modules we can use to meet your goals. Let us prepare your requirements and help you get the most out of your training budget.
